POLARION

LAKEVILLE/FREETOWN, MASSACHUSETTS

VOL. XXIII

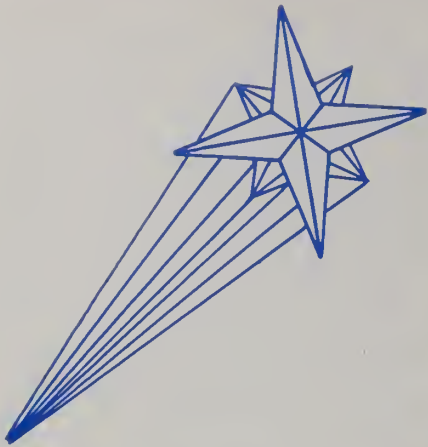

1982

The Polarion is the symbol on a compass that has helped to guide navigators throughout the centuries. This symbol inscribed in the mosaic tile on the floor of the main foyer, greets visitors to Apponequet. Although it has been a part of our school for many years, the Polarion has drifted into oblivion. We, the staff of the 1982 Polarion, have decided to bring back the ideals it symbolizes and give it former recognition. We believe that the Polarion reflects the philosophy of Apponequet by serving as a guide to help the student navigate his or her way through A.H.S. and into the future.

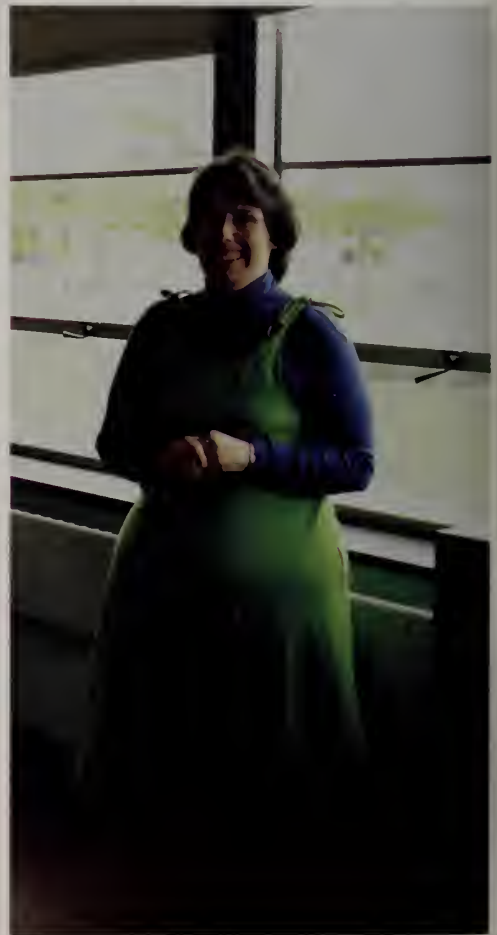

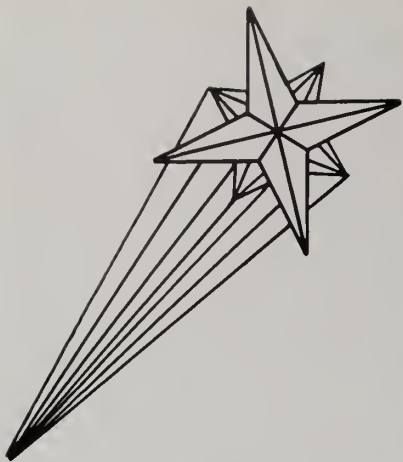

The theme of the 1982 Polarion is "Looking Forward, Looking Back" and its purpose is to help us, the Class of 1982, reflect upon our past accomplishments and all the good times we have experienced. It also reflects upon our hopes and dreams for the future as we embark upon our own individual adventures. We have tried to capture the spirit of the Class of 1982, a spirit we will always carry in our hearts, and we hope that you will be able to pick up this book in future years, look back, feel the spirit, and smile.

"One of the real joys of our lives is having friends and keeping in touch."

Sue's ambition in life is to be happy and work with disabled children. Her ambition in life is to live with Artie in the mountains. Among her favorites are Kahlua, lobsters, Rolling Stones, Bob Segar, T.V. New Hampshire, drawing and sleep. She most admires her mother. Sue's pet peeves are Mr. Powers and people who think that they know better than others. "later"

George Thompson
35 E. Howland Road
East Freetown

We may some day find George in the Air Force, traveling through California camping, swimming and listening to hard rock. Although George favors New Hampshire, Cape Cod, pizza, beer, seafood and 1.30. He hates 7:30, jocks, and snobs. George could also do without Mrs. Barth always telling him to stop talking. His most memorable moment was when he and his friends decided to skip school but the car didn't!

"Live free or die"

Tim's ambitions in life are to be successful in whatever he does and to someday live up in the mountains. Timmy's favorites include Mom's lasagna, Monica, CSN & Y, CCC's and milk, prime rib, Grampa G, triples with cheese, and being out with the guys. Tim will always remember December 19th, Mr. Sylvia, the summer of '81, Moto X, and the night Billy took a wrong turn into the cranberry bog. He's most likely to be found at Mike's with Monica or with Dunham and DiCarlo. Among Tim's pet peeves are running out of gas, fake people, being broke, a person who makes ugly faces, and rainy days.

Brian Van Nostrand
Gramp Deane Road
Assonet

Brian's ambition in life is to inherit a million dollars. He's most likely to be found with Kelly and friends. He likes listening to Jackson Browne, Fleetwood Mac, Grateful Dead, Fee Castles, and Moody Blues. He also likes them and it! His pet peeves are Fiats, principals, drags and M.D.C. The one thing Brian will miss when he graduates are the people he has met over the years.

GRADUATION

JUNIOR MISS 1982

A group of enthusiastic young ladies gather each year in Middleboro to compete for the title of Greater Middleboro Junior Miss. The winners receive college scholarships and the top winner gets the opportunity to participate in the Massachusetts State Contest on Cape Cod. This year Abbequett girl walked away with the three top honors. Christine Levesque received the honor of Miss Greater Middleboro with second place going to Frange Leharo and third place to Valerie Dorabusa. In addition, Chris received the Poise and Appearance at the state competition. Congratulations to all the girls for jobs well done.

FOOTBALL

1981 was a disappointing and yet rewarding year. Disappointing in that we failed to win some games that were within our reach and rewarding in that the players refused to quit and came on strong with their best efforts late in the year to salvage the season. The coaches were pleased with the fine character displayed by captains Gleason, Sylvia, and Dellarocca and their teammates and commend them for their perseverance.

QB Joe O'Brien had a fine season in '81

This season of the 1981 Cross Country team has brought the Lakers to the top of the Mayflower League once again. This year was to be a rebuilding year for a team that lost a few fine runners last season. The next season will keep the Lakers at the forefront of the Mayflower League because we are only losing two Seniors this year and hope to have our present runners grow and improve as next season approaches.

This year was the first year that the Apponequet swim team had a regular dual meet schedule which upgraded the level of competition considerably. We no longer swim against teams who are considered "easy." In our first season in the Southeastern Conference League, we faced the disadvantage of a lack of numbers. Because Apponequet is a very small school, more Freshmen and Sophomores are needed if we are ever to pose a serious threat to teams such as New Bedford, and Durfee. This year's team had several gifted swimmers who even in "the big time" won races and surprised the opposition. Senior David Taal, Juniors Ray Nacaula and Brian Engstrom and Freshman Ian Taal were all strong competitors to be reckoned with. Unfortunately, we lacked the depth to back up our lead swimmers. The diving trio of Bob Gattlich, Joe Beneski, and Steve Medeiros surprised everyone (including themselves) as their hard work at practice paid off. Participation in sectional and state competition is our goal for as many of the teams as possible; though it is extremely difficult for the girls of the team to achieve time standards which many boys cannot. Although this season seemed to have been plagued with illness—from chicken pox to broken shoulders, we were all very pleased with our final record of 4 wins and 4 losses (which included wins over arch-rival Middleboro in dual meet and sectional competitions). Hopefully, everyone will stay healthy, work hard, and respond to the challenge as we strive to experience the "thrill of victory," not the "agony of defeat."

Coaches' Philosophy

Coach Coulombe: To win is secondary, the goal is constant improvement, achievement and consequently winning will follow.

Coach Pineault: In order to strive in the world of hare knocks, one must learn to work hard and sacrifice very early in life. This comes through sports and will help later on in life.

Coach Thibeault: Remember this your lifetime through; Tomorrow there will be more to do . . . For failure waits for all who stray With some success made yesterday.

Graduation is one of the best and worst times of our senior year. Although it represents the spring of the rest of our lives, this bitter-sweet day brings to a close the winter of our high school years. It is the day we finally realize that a major part of our lives is over, one whose memories we will treasure forever. The friendships, the rivalries, the alliances, and the hatreds of school have all been a part of our lives, and the gaps they leave when we go our separate ways will be always present. We will forever have a place in our hearts for a special friend or a favorite teacher, one whose memories will never fade. Looking back, then, is always a major part of our senior year, as we recall every event in our lives that affected us and try to relate them to the kind of people we are now.

Just as important in our senior year is looking forward. To succeed in our lives, we should always keep an eye on the horizon, ever ready to relinquish our occupation for a better or more rewarding one. For us, the class of 1982, this means college and continuing to build on the foundations of learning that our high school has given us. We must always strive to improve ourselves, for without improvement comes stagnation, both mental and physical, and that should not be the fate of any of us. We all have the potential to become whatever we choose, but only by dint of continued effort and effective foresight and the willingness to achieve in whatever field we choose for ourselves. With an eye to the future, then, we wish us all the very best of luck, continued health, and prosperity.

EDITOR'S LAST WORDS

I would be remissant as Editor-in-Chief of this book if I did not take this opportunity to thank the members of this year's staff who gave so much of themselves this year to make this book a success. Without people like: Fransje, Jeff, Mike, Amalia, Brian, Suzanne, Dawn, Chris, Sandy, Bryan, Heidi, Sandy, Kathy, Sue, Marianne, Mr. Capone, and our school committee, a book like this could not be possible. I am grateful to these people for "sticking it out to the end."

Also, a special thanks to Dr. Camali for his continued support of the Apponequet Yearbook.

I'd also like to thank my parents for putting up with the busy schedule I've had this year because of Yearbook and other activities. I love you both very much and thank you for all the support you've given me.

We've walked these halls many times before, but as we walk them for the last, we remember our past at Apponequet—the good and bad, joyful and depressing, happy and sad. Who ever thought that 4 years would pass by so quickly. It seems that just yesterday we were Freshmen—fearful of the great unknowns of high school.

As we depart from these halls for the final time, we realize that we are now filled with same fears—facing the unknowns of the real world. These walls of security have served us well but now we must leave and grow into individuals ready to face today's problems. Because I know that the Class of 1982 has been (and will always be) the best class to ever leave these walls, we will be able to face tomorrow's challenges better than any other class in Apponequet's history. So watch out world here comes the Class of 1982.
